The Value of Sound Advice

Winnipeg Police Credit Union is excited to introduce our new Wealth Advisor Cory Papineau, who brings over 20 years of financial service experience and expertise in investment strategies, retirement and financial planning. Cory previously worked for two major banks and spent the last seven years with another Winnipeg credit union. Cory recognizes that financial success means something different for everybody. He understands the importance of listening to every member's financial goals, to understand where they are today and to help develop a plan that meets their future needs. Financial life planning can be complex, and can involve ongoing investment review and analysis, managing tax efficiency, changing cash flow needs, and numerous other financial-related issues.
