Zaneta

Jacqueline

A warm welcome...

... to Zaneta, who joined WPCU as Financial Accounts Manager in February. With 13 years of experience in the credit union system, Zaneta has a deep knowledge of products and services and can confidently support her clients in planning for and building their financial futures using products like loans, mortgages, lines of credit and RSPs.

... and to Jacqueline, our new Financial Service Representative, who joined the WPCU team in January. Her 16-year career in financial services includes four years in the credit union system. Jacqueline's knowledge and expertise have equipped her well to deliver the unique boutique experience and concierge service that have made WPCU the financial institution of choice for our members.

and farewell!

... to Jill — all the best on your future endeavours!

I would highly recommend the WPCU to my friends and family. During the start of my career I went to the WPCU who assisted me financially without any issues.

The WPCU staff are always looking after you and are aware of what best suits your financial needs.

The staff are extremely friendly, always remember your name and give you that personal touch that other banking institutions severely lack.

I will always be a member of WPCU, as it has been a wonderful institution to bank with.

- P.N.

Member Since 2003

Ever since the first day I walked into WPCU I was treated like a part of the credit union family!

Each staff member knows myself and my family by name and are always so helpful and knowledgeable.

I truly would never dream of banking elsewhere!

-G.P.

Member Since 2006

Congratulations

to Kristina Bessason, winner of the 2020 Stanley R. Scarr Scholarship Award.

We congratulate you on your educational achievements and wish you the best of success in your continued pursuit of educational excellence.

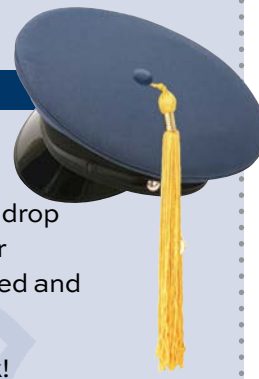

Winnipeg Police Credit Union's annual scholarship program was established in 2006 in honour of Stanley R. Scarr, who served on the Board of Directors for nearly 44 years, including 29 years as President.
